

Keith Hand

Professor Keith Hand brings more than 25 years of professional experience in private practice, government, and academia to his teaching and research at UC Law SF. Professor Hand's research focuses on legal reform in the Greater China, with particular attention to constitutional law, citizen efforts to use the law to promote legal and political change, Chinese domestic law as a tool of foreign policy, and China's anti-sanctions regime. In January 2015, he co-founded the UC Law SF East Asian Legal Studies Program with Professor Miyazawa. From 2016 to 2022, he served as Associate Dean for Global Programs. Professor Hand holds a JD and an MAIS in China Studies from the University of Washington and a BA from Whitman College. He is a member of the National Committee on U.S.-China Relations and a non-resident scholar with the 21st Century China Center at the UC San Diego School of Global Policy and Strategy. Prior to joining UC Law SF faculty, Prof. Hand practiced corporate law in the New York office of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison. He later served as senior counsel to the U.S. Congressional-Executive Commission on China and as Beijing director and senior fellow at the Yale Law School China Law Center.
