

Consortium Advisory Board: Call for Applications

The UCSF-UC Law SF Consortium on Law, Science & Health Policy invites applications for its advisory board. Consortium Advisory Board members serve 2-year terms and provide collaborative consultation, input and advice to the Consortium Executive Director and core Consortium staff on the strategic direction and programs of the UCSF-UC Law Consortium on Law, Science & Health Policy. CAB members also spearhead the community and capacity-building work of the Consortium by proactively connecting threads and resources of the community together, deepening relationships, and broadening networks.

The Consortium Advisory Board is comprised of the following 12 members:

1. Three (3) UCSF Faculty Members, here defined as inclusive of individuals with any level of faculty appointment and/or non-faculty PI-Eligible Research Staff and/or other campus leaders with comparable status, such as UCSF Health clinical and administrative leadership.
2. Three (3) UC Law Faculty Members, here defined as inclusive of individuals with any level of faculty appointment and/or non-faculty, PI-Eligible Research Staff and/or other campus leaders with comparable status.
3. One (1) Current or Former UCSF student, learner, or trainee
4. One (1) Current or Former UC Law SF student, learner, or trainee
5. One (1) Current or Former UCSF-UC Law SF HPL student
6. Three (3) Community Members, defined as individuals who are representative of the communities impacted by current or prospective Consortium research and policy initiatives.

We are currently recruiting for the following open slots only. All other slots are filled:

- 1 UCSF Faculty member (defined above)
- 1 Current or Former UCSF student, learner, or trainee

CAB members attend quarterly meetings of approximately two hours each and will be asked to engage in collaborative consultation between meetings. CAB members receive $1,000 each year for two years in honorarium (totaling $2,000). At least one meeting per year is held in person at UC Law SF and food is provided. We cannot offer travel reimbursement.

Additional information about the CAB and board members' roles can be found in the Terms of Reference document. Information about the current CAB may be found here.

Interested individuals can apply by submitting an application via email to Rachel Blanchard, Project Coordinator, at blanchardrachel@uclawsf.edu. Applications must be submitted no later than March 31st at midnight to be considered.

Applications will be reviewed in April. Successful applicants will be contacted for a brief interview. Final decisions will be announced in May, with new Board terms starting in July.

Application available here.

Application to Serve as a Member of the Consortium Advisory Board

Name:

Current title, affiliation, position, or role:

Board Member slot you seek to fill (you may indicate more than one if you believe you could fit in more than one category):

- UCSF Faculty/PI/Health Care/Campus Leader
- Current or Former UCSF student, learner, or trainee

1. Please tell us why you are interested in serving as a Consortium Advisory Board member.
2. Please tell us about your previous experience, knowledge, and/or interest in health justice. This can be any kind of experience or knowledge, however gained (e.g. professional, lived, educational, etc).
3. In your opinion, what role can or should academic institutions have in advancing health justice?
4. Please tell us about any previous experience you may have providing service, consultation, and/or leadership to an organization. This may be on previous boards, committees, church organizations, student organizations, coalitions, or others.
5. Please tell us what experiences, ideas, and/or skills you would like to contribute to the Consortium Advisory Board.
6. Serving on the CAB requires that you commit to attending four quarterly meetings per year for two years, starting July 2026. Additionally, you would be expected to engage with us as needed between those meetings. The first meeting is typically held in person at UC Law SF in August. Other meetings will be held online via Zoom.

Please confirm that you are able to commit to attending quarterly CAB meetings and can otherwise fulfill the duties of a Board role. Board member duties and expectations are described in the Terms of Reference document.

7. Please tell us anything else you think we should know in considering you for this position. Feel free to attach or send other materials you think we should consider, such as a cv, resume, biosketch, newspaper article about you, link to your website, etc.
